BOULEVARD THEATER / COMEDY

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 6, 2018 at 8:30 pm

Text and Staging Audrey SCHEBAT / With Barbara SCHULTZ et Arié ELMALEH

An enjoyable and funny performance by the couple Barbara SCHULTZ and Arié ELMALEH, duo of lovers on the stage as in the city. Beginning as a boulevard theater with the model wife and the misogynist husband, the piece quickly brings real feminist motivations and many twists and turns. A delight !

The Story ?

A couple is waiting for friends to have dinner, but they will never arrive ... Is it an accident, a separation, a housebreaking ? To seek the reasons for this absence, the wife and husband argue. Naturally, the woman defends her friend Catherine and the man his colleague David. With their radically opposed visions, they come to absurd misunderstandings and intimate revelations. Do they realize they actually questioned the foundations of their own couple ?

Author and screenwriter, Audrey SCHEBAT directs Barbara SCHULZ and Arié ELMALEH. The two comedians, very active in the theater and in the cinema, are in a play about the couple's life : its joys, difficulties and epic adventures ...
